

Youth Media Recognition

MANHATTAN NEIGHBORHOOD NETWORK

This certificate from Manhattan Neighborhood Network's Youth Channel recognizes Inner Circle Productions for their impactful youth-produced project "Who's to Blame."

It reflects the value of student storytelling and the role our programs play in helping young people use media to question, reflect, and inspire change.

“Media gives young people the power to question, to reflect, and to inspire change in their community and beyond.

— MANHATTAN NEIGHBORHOOD NETWORK

Certification of Achievement

Manhattan Neighborhood Network would like to give special recognition to

Inner Circle Productions

for their project “Who’s to Blame”

June 7, 2005

Hye-Jung Park
Hye-Jung Park, Youth Channel Director

Robert Devine
Robert Devine, Executive Director

ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT

This certificate was awarded by Manhattan Neighborhood Network's Youth Channel in recognition of the meaningful and thought-provoking work created by youth through Inner Circle Productions.

DATE

June 7, 2005

ORIGIN

Manhattan Neighborhood Network
Youth Channel
New York, NY

SIGNIFICANCE

Recognition of youth media excellence and the power of storytelling to engage and inspire communities.